I will return to the LCC. What do I need to do before traveling outside the United States?

If you are an F-1 student and you want to travel outside the United States, bring the following items to the LCC Counseling Team and obtain a travel signature before you travel:

- Flight itinerary issued by the airline

I will study in the LCC next term. When may I leave the United States and when should I return?

If you leave the United States earlier or return later than the requirements below, you might not receive a travel signature and you will be asked to change your flights:

- Do not leave the United States until you have attended the LCC Final Student Conference on the LCC Graduation day (uh.edu/class/english/lcc/admissions/course-dates).
- Return to the United States before the LCC Student Check-In day (uh.edu/class/english/lcc/admissions/course-dates) if you missed any promotion tests at the end of the previous term.
- Return to the United States before the first day of classes if you took all promotion tests at the end of the previous term.

I will not study in the LCC next term. When should I leave the United States?
