

04.05.02 STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

I want to join a club or an organization on campus. Who can help me?

To find clubs and organizations at University of Houston (UH), you can go to the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) or go to Get Involved in your AccessUH account.

What does the Center for Student Involvement do?

CSI offers many opportunities for UH students, including student organizations, volunteer opportunities, and other fun activities. In CSI, you can meet with Cougar Involvement Ambassadors (www.uh.edu/csi/cia). They will ask you to complete a survey (www.uh.edu/csi/cia/consultations.html). Then they will suggest 5 to 7 clubs and organizations that fit your interest. They can also help you navigate Get Involved.

How do I find a student organization using Get Involved?

- Log into to your AccessUH at accessuh.uh.edu
- Click on the icon Get Involved
- Click Discover a New Organization
- Search for a specific organization or browse the different organizations
- Click the organization's name
- Click Join Organization or email the Primary Contact for more information

What are some free events on campus?

Some organizations provide free and fun activities for UH students. Here are a few popular ones:

- Student Program Board (www.uh.edu/spb) – Movies, concerts, games, and other fun events
- Metropolitan Volunteer Program (www.uh.edu/mvp) – Volunteer and community service opportunities
- Council for Ethnic Organizations (www.uh.edu/csiceo) – Cultural activities and events
